

A little idea of what we'll be doing there...

For 13 years Andy has delivered thousands of fun & inspirational presentations to schools and conferences across North America. Two million people have seen him speak in all 10 Canadian provinces, the Yukon and 38 states. Using his past experiences, he has created high-energy comedy presentations that IMPACT students with messages of “get your hand up” and “dare to care”! Andy’s messages remind his audience that life is about learning and having fun while doing it. His presentations focus on the positive outcomes of being yourself, caring, trying your best, and being an encouraging friend & person for others.
