

Evolving Perspectives on Death and dying: Implications for Nursing Practice

Start Date: 5/17/2018 9:00 AM

End Date: 5/17/2018 1:00 PM

Evolving Perspectives on Death and dying: Implications for Nursing Practice

Event is Now Full

Join us for the 5 th Annual Nursing Week Event, Presented by Grey Bruce Nursing Practice Network. This year's theme is "Evolving Perspectives on Death and Dying: Implications for Nursing practice". Come learn about the ethics around death and dying and hear local nurses talk about their nursing experiences with Medical Assistance in Dying.

Join nurses from all sectors of nursing as we learn about death and dying from a nursing perspective

Date : May 17, 2018

Time : 9:00-12:30

Registration – free – but must pre-register

Lunch provided

Further info : – Sarah Ellis 519-376-9420 ext. 1443

Agenda

Morning Session :

Dr. Robert Butcher, ethicist, "End of life care and ethics"

Cross Sector Nursing experiences with Medical Assistance in dying.

Lunch provided

12:30: presentation of "Bayshore Broadcasting Caring Nurse Awards"

Location(s)

Grey Bruce Public Health

Owen Sound

101 17th Street East

Owen Sound

Ontario

N4K 0A5