End Date: 5/8/2018 9:00 PM

2018 Healthy Communities Conference: Creating Partnerships for Wellbeing

ALL SESSIONS SOLD OUT

Creating Partnerships for Wellbeing will bring together Indigenous and non-Indigenous youth and adult community members, advocates, and leaders representing various organizations from across Grey and Bruce Counties to share in learning about Indigenous health equity. Through presentations by invited speakers and facilitated discussions, participants will explore topics related to cultural safety and humility, local historical context, reconciliation, community development, and much more.

Conference Objectives

- To unpack the root causes of Indigenous health inequities
- To showcase the strength and resilience of youth and their communities
- To engage in a reflective learning journey on what wellbeing for Grey and Bruce could look like
- To come together to build respectful relationships and partnerships
